

2017 Boccia Knockout Championships

The 2017 NSW Public Schools Boccia Knockout competition was filled with excitement, challenges and celebrations. Killarney Heights High School narrowly defeated Cranebrook High school in the final. Woolgoolga High School came third.

This year saw record entries from every corner of NSW. Sixty schools entered the competition early in the year. Teams competed in their own regions and winners progressed to the Grand Final which will be held on 23 August 2017 at the State Sports Centre, Sydney Olympic Park.

The 2017 NSW Public Schools Boccia Knockout competition is supported by The DoE School Sport Unit, in partnership with Boccia NSW, NSW Sport and Recreation and the Cerebral Palsy Alliance of NSW.

We would like to thank the teachers, principals, parents and supporters who have assisted the student participants and Boccia NSW who have contributed so much to making this competition such a success of the 2017 Boccia Schools Knockout Competition. Special thanks to Rebecca Hanrahan who coordinates this state wide program.

A huge thank you to the Cerebral Palsy Alliance Sports Program, especially, Peter King and Sue Olsen. Their tireless effort in running the competitions all around the state of NSW have enable all the qualifying schools to take part in this special day
